BODY OF SUICIDE GIRL IS HERE FOR BURIAL

Broken Marriage Engagement Caused Her to Take Acid

FUNERAL TOMORROW

Alleged Intended Husband Married and Now Lives in Charleroi

Lying cold in death at the mortuary of M. T. Crowley on McKean avenue is the body of Fannie Dohmoh, the German girl who committed suicide in Pittsburg Thursday, while weeping and heartbroken at the home of Mrs. Freda Kiser at 816 Fallowfield avenue is Bertha Dohmoh, the dead girl's sister, who is the only relative in this country. The body was brought to Charleroi yesterday by Undertaker Crowley and it will be buried from the mortuary some time tomorrow afternoon.

As stated the girl, who was employed as a domestic at the home of Marcus Aaron of Winebiddle street in Pittsburg, committed suicide Thursday afternoon by drinking carbolic acid. The cause for the rash deed is supposed to be a love affair, in which a young man to whom the girl was said to be engaged, suddenly left her and married another girl. Yesterday Mrs. Freda Kiser of Fallowfield avenue, who was a friend of the girl, went to Pittsburg and identified the body at the morgue and had it removed to Charleroi for burial.

It is stated that the dead girl who came to Charleroi shortly after her arrival in this country about three years ago, made her home temporarily with Mrs. Kiser, whom she had known in Germany. While here she met a young man who paid her attention, and to whom she told her friends she was engaged. Later the girl got a place in Pittsburg, but came here at intervals to visit the Kiser family, and where she could meet her intended husband.

Some time ago, it is stated by the dead girl's friends, the young man ceased paying her attention, and got back a watch and other trinkets he had given her. Not long since he married another girl, and is living in Charleroi. His former sweetheart took the broken engagement very much to heart, and brooded and grieved over it continually. On Wednesday of this week she came to Charleroi to visit the Kiser family. It was remarked that she acted strangely, and it is now thought that she came for the express purpose of bidding them goodbye, as she committed suicide the next day after her return.

The girl always bore a good reputation and was highly respected by her friends and those who knew her. She had been employed at the Aaron home in Pittsburg for about a year and a half, and was well regarded by her employers. Her sister Bertha is also employed in Pittsburg.

Ready for Next One.

Street Commissioner Jacob Hormell expects to get the streets pretty well cleaned today from the mud and debris washed down upon them by the deluge of Thursday night. When this is done Mr. Hormell says he will be ready for the next storm.

One Body is Recovered

Victim of Boat Rocking Incident at Monon Awaits Burial

The body of George Hagish, one of the two Greensburg men drowned in the river at Monongahela Thursday afternoon, was recovered, being brought to the surface by Edward Crall, Clarence Shepler and John Schaffer, who in a motor boat were dragging the river. The body was removed to the Bebout mortuary where it still remains, not yet having been claimed.

Every effort has been in vain to recover the body of Steve Sweat, the other man who lost his life at the time Hagish was drowned. Dynamite was tried but without success and it is supposed the body has been caught at the bottom.

FIREMEN TO MEET

Local Department Will Contest With South Brownsville

PROGRAM ARRANGED

Accepting an invitation from the South Brownsville Firemen, the Charleroi Volunteer Fire Department will journey to that town next Thursday, September 28, where they will spend a day as contestants in a program of field sports. It is a neighborly affair, and only the Charleroi and Brownsville firemen will engage in any of the contests, although other companies are expected to be present. The following program has been arranged:

Greased pole climbing contest, free for all for a $5 prize.

Ball game 10:30 a. m. between the two fire companies.

In the afternoon the following events will take place on Water street, between the hose house and Barr hotel:

2 o'clock: Hub and hub race.

2:45: Ladder race.

3:15: The Charleroi company will give an exhibition with the Davis Automatic Safety Fire Escape from the top of the Barr house.

4:00: Water battle in front of Pennsylvania hotel.

The Charleroi Firemen will leave on the 7:58 train in the morning, but those who want to see the afternoon sports can leave Charleroi on the 12:38 train at noon and arrive in time for the mose interesting part of the program.

FINDINGS IN FULL OF EXECUTIVE BOARD

International Committee of U. M. W. A. Fully Vindicates President Francis Feehan in Controversy With Gibbons Faction

To The Members of the International Executive Board, U. M. W. of A.

Gentlemen:—We, your Committee, who were delegated by you to further examine the evidence and testimony given before the International Executive Board in connection with the factional quarrel in District No. 5 United Mine Workers of America, submit for your consideration the following report:

Since February 28th, 1911 a secession movement of Mine Workers, officered by Robert Gibbons, President; Abe Kephart, Vice-President; Andrew Puskar, Secretary-Treasurer; Wm. P. Friday, James Brown, E. D. Reed, Thomas Sheehan, James Sabin, Fred Sample and Otto Slater, members of the Executive Board, has existed in District No. 5. The above named men claiming the right of leadership by virtue of the actions of Special Convention, held in Pittsburg February 28th, 1911, at which convention the results of a refenendum vote of the Mine Workers were ignored, Francis Feehan and the other regularly elected officers deposed, and Gibbons and his associates installed as officers of the District, and now offer to the International Executive Board as justification for their actions the following charges against Francis Feehan:

"First—That Francis Feehan is not now, neither was he a member in good standing of a Local Union at the time of his election as District President.

"Second—We charge Francis Feehan of gross favoritism to certain coal companies."

In order that Robert Gibbons and his associate officers could be given an opportunity to prove their chargcharges, the International Executive Board was convened in Labor Temple, Pittsburg, and with the exception of September 4, and 5, has met in daily session from August 24 to September 16 for the purpose of hearing testimony in connection with the charges.

During the hearing the widest latitude was given Robert Gibbons and his colleagues to prove their charges and said hearing continued until they declared they had no further evidence to introduce.

We, your committee, after hearing the testimony and examining the evidence, have found the following facts and agreed to the following conclusions:

First—That circumstances warranted his doing so, and that Frances Feehan was acting with constitutional authority when he postponed the Annual District Convention.

Second—That the Special Convention was instigated by the self styled "Vigilence Committee" who first by the liberal circulation of malicious falsehods poisoned the minds and infuriated a small portion of the membership against Francis Feehan, and then started the agitation for a Special Convention.

Third—The supporters of the Special Convention have given no reasons why a Specal Convention was so urgent or necessary.

Fourth—The Special Convention acted without authority when it set aside the referendum vote of the membership, deposed the regular officers of the District without giving them a trial and installed Gibbons and his associates as officers of the District.

Fifth—That the Special Convention was not legal as it was not called in accordance with Section 1, Article 5, of the 1910 District Constitution.

Sixth—That Gibbon's claim that he was elected President of District No. 5 in the last District election is not valid. If he was, there would have been no necessity for the Special Convention setting aside the result of the referendum vote in order to make him President.

Seventh—That Gibbon's claim that the Irwin Field is not a part of District No. 5, and that the vote cast

RECEPTION FOR FELLOW PASTOR

Ministers Entertain Colleague Who Departs Soon for New Field

The Ministerial Association of Charleroi with their wives and children met in the lecture room of the First Presbyterian church Friday afternoon and held a reception in honor of Rev. V. G. Hostetter, pastor of the Christian church who is leaving his present pastorate for work of a wider range in Ohio. Refreshments were served an an informal program carried out. Rev. C. E.Frontz gave a very interesting account of a recent visit to Pike's Peak, the Royal Gorge Denver, San Francisco, Los Angeles and other places of interest. The Association presented Mr. Hostetter with a set of books to show their appreciation of his fraternal spirit and his work in Charleroi, the presentation speech being made by Rev. F. A. Richards. Singing and conversation formed a large feature of the gathering. A very enjoyabed time was spent and the company broke up wondering who would be the next to leave.

A Plague of Millers.

Myriads of brown millers are infesting the river towns. They swarm about the arc lights during the night, and the streets and pavements are covered with them in the morning. Charleroi is infested the same as the other towns, but no one seems to know to what species the insects belong, nor what they developed from.

Prof Daniel will meet the committee on music next Monday evening, at Brownsville to discuss the season's plans.

NEGRO IS STABBED

Companion in Quarrel Uses Knife and Then Flees

WOUND MAY BE FATAL

As the result of an argument the origin of which is unknown, James Johnson, a very large and powerful negro of Monongahela is in the Memorial hospital with a knife wound in his abdomen which is likely to prove fatal. Garfield Gardner, a decidedly small black man, is locked up in the Monongahea bastile charged with having wielded the knife which may terminate the big man's existence.

The trouble occurred about 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon on the Monongahela bridge near the Washington county end of the structure. The two men were sitting talking together when they got into an argument. It is claimed that Gardner suddenly drew a large Barlow knife from his pocket and proceeded to gash Johnson.

Gardner fled and last evening was picked up at Black Diamond by Constable W. J. Hilton and taken to the lockup.

Gardner flatly refuses to say anything about the trouble and the condition of Johnson precludes his talking.

Notice.

To the Republican Voters of Charleroi. This is to notify you, that I will not be a candidate for the office of justice of the peace at the coming election, as my business will not permit me to give it the proper attention. Thanking my friends for their kindness.

Noted Orators to Break Lance at Eldora Park Sunday

WOMAN ALSO LECTURES

Her Topic Will Be, "The Battle for Bread is the Issue"

An event of much interest to a large portion of the public will take place tomorrow at Eldoro Park. This is socialist lecture by one of the most eminent woman orators in the whole country. In addition to the lecture Miss Hunt will take part in a public debate with Hon. Edward Callaghan of Charleroi, on the subject, "Resolved That Socialism is the Only Solution for the Prevention of Crime."

Miss Hunt is one of the few educated and cultured young women who is devoting her life to the furtherance of Socialism. She is completely wrapped up in the issue and consecrates her life to the cause of what she thinks is for the betterment of humanity. She has been connected with some of the prominent lecture bureaus of the country, and is well known as one of the star lecturers of the American platform. She has also traveled extensively abroad studying social matters and is thoroughly conversant with social and economic conditions. At one of the meetings of the American Peace Conference she was chosen to make an address before that body.

Mr. Callaghan, who is now in the insurauce business in Charleroi, has also had a noted public career. He is a staunch Democrat of the Jeffersonian school, and while a resident of Westmoreland county was elected to the Pennsylvania Legislature, where he served one term with credit and distinction. Mr. Callaghan is also a deep student of social. political and economic conditions, and a ready debator. He has broken a lance on various occasions with some worthy foremen, and never failed to give a creditable account of himself.

The arrangement for the debate tomorrow came though a challenge Mr. Callaghan issued through the newspaper to the county chairmen of the various political parties to debate the subject, "What is the Best Remedy for the Prevention of Crime?" None of these accepted, but Leroy Bruce of Allenport proposed to debate the subject, "Resolved, That Socialism is the Only Solution for the Prevention of Crime." Mr. Callaghan consented and the debate was arranged to take place at the Coyle Theatre tomorrow. Later the Monessen Socialists arranged to have Miss Gertrude Hunt lecture at Eldora Park tomorrow, and in order not to conflict with the debate it was proposed to have Miss Hunt take Mr. Bruce's place and hold the debate at the park, after the lecture. Mr. Callaghan was agreeable, and the debate will start immediately after the lecture. Miss Hunt takes the affirmative and Mr. Callaghan the negative.

The subject of Miss Hunt's lecture at the park will be "The Battle for Bread is the Issue." It will start at 2:30.

FEEHAN VINDICATED.

Through the courtesy of Assemblyman Feehan the Mail is enabled to present to its readers the report of the executive committee of the United Mine Workers of America which has been investigating the dispute that has prevailed in District No. 5, or what is popularly known as the Pittsburg district. This will be interesting reading, particularly to the friends of President Francis Feehan, who is fully vindicated and sustained in the report.

In the unfortunate controversy that prevailed in this district between the factions of the miners, the sympathy of the public outside of the organization has been generally with President Feehan. The latter is well known personally all along the river where he used to live, and his friends outside of mining circles have watched his development as a leader with genuine pleasue. He has advanced right along in his sphere of influence, and his counsels are respected by all. He is fair, open and above board, and the public has confidence that he will always give due consideration to all sides of any question that may come up before him to decide. His complete vivication is received with general satisfaction in this community.

A SURFEIT.

Like the Mail, the Pittsburg Dispatch if of the opinion that the matter of celebrating events anniversaries and holding blowouts generally is being overdone, and that these affairs are costing the public mare than they come to. There is hardly a year in which a big exposition is not planned and the after effects in a large scope of country are deadly and paralyzing to industry and business generally.

Many communities as well as individuals are getting to be of the opinion that too much money is being spent in celebrations and blowouts, and that the individual as well as the country at large will be better off by keping their money in their pockets or in the banks. With some surplus cash the individual can often engage in a business project or purchase a property that will do more good to both himself and the community than to dissipate it for a celebration that only lasts a day, a week or a month, and then is paralyzing in its effects afterward. A new building or an expansion in business means more to a community than a blowout that costs all it comes to.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

Editor "Bill" Watson of the Donora American pulls off one on the police force of the down river steel town. Mike Ready, a special police officer, conducts a green house on the hill and a few nights ago some one called up the police station and asked for Mike The line wasn't working good and the officer who answered the phone could only hear what he took to be a report that some one had "cut Flowers." The man insisted that Ready be sent up at once.

Mike was hunted up but he had been off duty for a while and two other policeman responded to the call which had come from the neighborhood of the greenhouse. They went up expecting to find that a serious cutting affray had been pulled off, but were met by a mild mannered man who was waiting for Ready to come and deliver an order of cut flowers for a funeral. The officers beat it back to the station house and made the following report to Chief Rader.

"Arrests unnecessary. Flowers not cut yet."

"Where do you people get your railroad news?" asked Charles R. Trew, one of the prominent real estate and insurance men of the town. "You seem to have a line on what is doing in railroad developments up the river and across the West Virginia line that is not to be found in any other newspaper in the State."

Mr. Trew was informed that the Mail had some live wires at several of the up-river points that kept the paper informed in regard to prospective developments and he continued.

"A number of people here and in the community have coal investments in Greene county and West Virginia, and they are consequently much interested in railroad developments in those sections. They have gotten valuable information from the Mail in regard to railroad developments that was not to be found elsewhere, and consequently they watch your paper closely, and appreciate the information it gives. I notice that the Pittsburg papers often print the same railroad stuff weeks after it has appeared in the Mail."

THERE THE SAUSAGE IS HOLY

Highest Aim of Good German Is to Evolve a New Brand of "Wurst."

While in this country one may purchase many varieties of sausage, it is to Westphalia, Prussia, that we must look for the sausage in all its glory, says Harper's Weekly. There, it is said, a trader will name you no fewer than four hundred different kinds, and they present a bewildering array of divers substances in their composition

At a German sausage exhibition held not so long ago at Berne, in Switzerland, there were displayed 1,785 kinds of sausage from various countries It is said that a good German would rather invent a new sausage than anything else. At any rate there is told the story of the young Prussian who, though he had received an expensive training as a chemist, shut himself up in his laboratory and, instead of devising a new dye, safety match, motor engine, explosive, aeroplane or photographic lens, took pork, veal, olives, pepper, fennel, old wine, cheese, apples, cinnamon and herrings' roes, and from them evolved a wonderful and totally original "wurst," the best of its kind. He has amassed a considerable fortune from its sale.

Fond Hearts Finally United.

After waiting 30 years for her to become a widow, George Sleegarm of Wilkesbarre, Pa., has married Mrs. Marietta Tehern of Hazelton. When they were young in Germany they fell in love, and would have married had it not been for the opposition of their parents. They tried to elope, but were discovered and caught before it was possible for them to wed. Sleegarm, despondent and angry, emigrated, and his sweetheart, who was married a year after he left, followed a few years later with her husband, who died a short time ago. Sleegarm lately discovered that his old sweetheart lived in Hazleton. The old courtship was begun again and culminated in their wedding the other day.

YOUR KIDNEYS NEED CLEANING

Every Person, Healthy or Unhealthy, Ought to Give the Kidneys a Thorough Cleaning Right Now.

You clean your teeth daily. You wouldn't think of doing otherwise, and yet the teeth are not one tenth so important to health, strength and a long life as the kidneys.

Do you know that the kidneys are little strainers or fine sieves, through which every drop of blood in the body passes again and again.

And when the kidneys become clogged they are unable to strain the impure matter from the blood and it stays in the blood and causes disease in various parts of the body. Take rheumatism, for instance, this terrible disease is caused by uric acid in the blood, and uric acid gets into the blood only when the kidneys are clogged up and are unable to properly strain the impurities.

Just go to W. F. Hennings' today and get a bottle of Thompson's Barosma, the most scientific kidney, liver and bladder regulator the world has ever known, take it regularly for two weeks and all the impure matter in your kidneys will pass out through the bladder and your kidneys will be as pure and clean and healthy as any kidneys can be.

Thompson's Barosma is guaranteed by W. F. Hennings' to cure all diseases of the kidneys, liver, and bladder, or money back. It is a wonderful tonic and blood purifier and will bring the glow of health to the cheeks of the sick in a short time. 50 cents and $1.00 a bottle. All druggists.

For County Commissioner
THOMAS HILL
Union Township

Subject to Republican Rules

The office of County Commissioner is the most important in the whole county. It has to spend hundreds of thousands of dollars of the people's money every year. All the public improvements are enactioned and constructed under its direction. It is the most important office for a section or locality to have representation in, although not one of great emolument or profit to the one holding it. It is strange to say that the boroughs and townships fronting upon the Monongahela River have never had representation upon the board in the majority party for over thirty years. This is the more remarkable because they have over one-third of the population of the entire county and have very often themselves furnished the majority to elect the commissioners and the entire Republican ticket. Is it fair to this great and most important district? Has this great valley received its proportionate share of public improvements? Of the thousands and hundreds of thousands of dollars spent upon the road improvements, how much has been spent along the Monongahela valley- The time is close at hand when the Republican voters of this great community can have a representative tried and true, and who is in touch with the River country, by putting the cross opposite the name of Thomas Hill of Union Township, whose name appears upon the official Republican ballot. He will see that this great section will receive its full share of public improvements. He believes that when money is collected as taxes from this district that improvements should come proportionately. He is opposed to the arbitrary increase of the assessment of a whole township or borough. He believes that the appeals from the assessments should be held in each locality, and that the people wishing to object to the assessment should not be compelled to take the time and expense or to go to the county seat to obtain their hearing. In other words, that the Commissioners should go to the people instead of compelling the people to go to them. If you believe that the Republican party should give the river district a representative, the first in thirty years, cast your vote for Thomas Hill.

The above appeared in the Charleroi Mail in its issue of April 10, 1908, and upon that platform Mr. Thomas Hill received a flattering vote from the River District and was nominated and elected County Commissioner. Has he made good these promises to the River District?

BRIDGES

What Has He Done for Bridges

At the time when he entered upon the duties of his office the building of the new bridge at Monongahela had been arranged for, yet, the contract had not been let, and the matter was being held up indefinitely, he and his associates immediately took up the matter and in a short time after their entry into the office the contract was let and the people of Monongahela were given a good substantial bridge over the Monongahela River. The Speers-Belle Vernon bridge has been made free during his administration, and he and his associates have been outspoken and persistent in favor of a bridge at W. Brownsville and nowsteps arebeing taken to build the same in conjunction with Fayette County.

ROADS

What Has He Done for Roads

The building of the Monongahela-Donora Road, the Charleroi-Bentleyville and the Roscoe-Stockdale, and the letting of the contract of the East Pike Run and the Finleyville-Monongahela by the State Highway Department are most convincing arguments in favor of a representative of the majority party from the River Section in favor of retention of Thomas Hill in the Commissioners Office.

APPEALS

What Has He Done in the Matter of Appeals

In the above he promised that appeals would be held in different sections of the county, instead of requiring all persons to come to the county seat which had formerly been the practice and worked a great hardship particularly to the people of the River District.

The loss of a day's time and the expense in going to and from the county seat amounted more to many people than the excess taxation they were obliged to pay by reason of an unfair assessment.

He and his associates have made this promise good by holding their appeals in different sections and in going to the people showed that they were the servants and not the Master. He further believes in equitable assessments to all property whether belonging to the rich or poor, white or black high or low, and in this respect he and his associates have done their best to bring this about.

COUNTY OFFICES

He Believes In a Salary for the Other County Officials

but this is not a matter which comes under the jurisdiction of the Board of Commissioners, but to bring about this end, he and his associate [illegible]zed a bill to be drawn putting the other county offices upon a salary basis, and had the same presented in the State Legislature. This bill, however, met with considerable opposition there and could not be passed.

In thus being a faithful representative of the River District does not mean that he has been unfair to others and he believes that all sections of the county should receive fair and equal treatment and his promise of courteous treatment to all having business in the office has been faithfully carried out.

Is not Thomas Hill a faithful representative of the people?

ECONOMY

He Promised the People Economy In the County Affairs

he and his associates have reduced the operations of the county many thousand dollars. When he took office in 1909, the county was deeply in debt and considerable money borrowed, paying interest on the same, and during the first year of their administration he and his associates were forced to raise the millage in order to pay off the out standing debts contracted by the predecessors, yet in the following two years they have succeeded in reducing the millage three-quarters of one per cent less than it had formerly been.

See that Tom Hill is retained and put in the cross opposite his name and so doing you vote for good roads, free bridges and low taxes.

DISSERTATION ON THE SHIRT

Writer Uncorks Vials of Wrath in a Few Indictments of Uncomfortable Modern Garment.

The onward march of civilization has its obstacles.

Shirts being made for man and not man for shirts, every time a man gets a new shirt or one comes back from the laundry the moral uplift needs the application of the safety brake and the emergency clutch to keep us from dropping into the cellar again.

Shirts are made of various kinds of materials. After the sewing is finished they are left for a few hours in a strong mixture of glue and concrete. This fastens the back to the bosom and sticks the sleeves together. Buttonholes are then made in the n ckband, and the band is then steeped in cement so that the buttonholes cannot be opened. The bosom is then adorned with buttons. These buttons are sewed on with one weak thread, so that when you try to button the shirt, after having pried it apart with a paper knife and strong language, the buttons will fly away merrily.

Shirts that are laundered are always sent back with the lower button buttoned in, and all the buttonholes glued tight.

Dress shirts are made with veneered bosoms, with little round holes where the studs are only supposed to be placed. These bosoms are absolutely inflexible, and the studs cannot be inserted without the aid of a sledge hammer, which is damaging to the disposition.

The man who will invent a buttonless shirt, which cannot be starched in the neckband, will earn a monument which will be illuminated at night.—Chicago Evening Post.

The Difficulty.

Among the Theatres

THE PALACE—CHARLEROI.

"Butchered to make a Roman holiday," is an old poetic expression used in describing the ancient Roman gladiatorial contests where men killed one another in the arena for the amusement of the populace. They don't do that exactly nowadays, but they did have a head-on collision between two locomotives at Indianapolis when the locomotive engineers held their convention there recently. This was caught by the moving picture cameras, and presented at the Palace Theatre the other night with a realism that was startling. The actual contact was shown together with the heap of scrap that resulted. Among the interesting photoplays of the week were "A Society Mother," who sacrifices the happiness of her daughter for wealth and position. Other strong features were "The Vitograph Monthly," "Two Men and a Girl," and "Kit Carson's Wooing." Miss Helen Atwill rendered two spotlight songs "Sonora" and "Garden of My Heart," which made a decided hit.

THE STAR—CHARLEROI.

"Nobody Loves a Fat Waman" was the title of a photoplay at the Star Theatre the nature of which was to make young damsels with tendency to accumulate adipose tissue sit up and take notice. The title however, is a misnomer, as the "person with a lean and hungry look" has ever been regarded as dangerous from Shakespear's time down to the present. The old-time nursery story, "Babes in the Wood," which used to be presented in the time of our grandfathers in pantomime along with "Punch and Judy," was also a delightful picture. Others striking photoplays of the week were "The Twins," "The Phoney Ring," "Hands Across the Cradle," and "Can He Save Her." Manager Tom Cowan's matinees at 2 in the afternoon are restful places for out-of-town shoppers.

THE NIXON—PITTSBURG.

Music that is bright and catchy, dances that appeal, elaborately staged scenes, a score of mystifying tricks and many novel and catchy effects are said to characterize the big musical extravaganza "The Top O' Th' World," which, with Bailey and Austin (the original stars) and the original cast and production, comes to the Nixon Theatre next week.

The book is by Mark Swan, lyrics by James O'Dea, and music by Anne Caldwell and Manuel Klein. The piece was staged by Joe Flanagan and Julian Mitchell and the dancers were put on by Sig. Albertieri and Bailey and Austin. The cast includes Fred Wilson, Al McGarry, Ethel Ricketts, Rae Bates, Lyda Carlisle, Leonoro Annino (former soprona soloist, Ferullo's Band, Coliseum, Chicago,) Paul Masieus, Tommy Madden, Cherry Pullman, and others. A big company of the prettiest girls obtainable in New York grace the five scenes and delightful and startling effects are distributed throughout the situations. The play is in two acts and five scenes. Each scene is a masterpiece of the scenic artist's skill.

Kris Kringle's Toy Shop, a Pass in the North, the Palace of Queen Aurora Borealis, the Eskimo's Igiloo and the Wonderful City of Ilusia are the mythical places represented.

There are seventy people in the company's roster and three special baggage cars are required to transport the scenery and effects.

THE GRAND—PITTSBURG.

Paul Armstrong, who wrote "Alias Jimmy Valentine," "Salomy Jane," "The Heir to the Hurrah," and "The Deep Purple," is the author of "A Romance of the Under World," which Manager Harry Davis has just booked as the headline attraction at the Grand for one week beginning Monday afternoon, September 25. This is not a sketch; it is a play. It takes two scenes to enact the play. The first of these shows a session of the criminal court in New York with vivid glimpses of types that go to make up what society knows as "the underworld." A pretty love romance runs throughout the powerful story and a genuinely humorous vein of comedy pervades many of its situations.

Nothing in the history of vaudeville has created so profound an imprssion upon the theatre-going public of the metropolis and in fact, in all the large cities where Mr. Armstrong has booked "A Romanceofthe UnderWorld."

Among the many other exceptionally fine attractions noted in the Grand's bill for the forthcoming week are Max Hart's Six Steppers, an ensemble dancing act of superlative qualities; the Flying Martins in their daring exploits on the double trapeze at dizzy heights; Nonette Lyle, the witching gypsy girl violinist and vocalist, and some half a dozen others.

The advance sale of reserved seats for next week will begin tomorrow.

THE ALVIN—PITTSBURG.

For the week beginning Monday evening, September 25, Gertrude Elliott and a capable supporting company will present at the Alvin Theatre Joseph Medill Patterson's new drama of present conditions, entitled "Rebellion." In brief, the story concerns Georgia Connor, a young married woman of the middle class. Jim her husband, turns out to be a worthless drunkard, and failing to support Georgia, she is forced to make her own living. She gets a position in a big downtown office, and very soon finds herself in favor with her employer, and shortly after in the particular favor of a very honorable and a very handsome young gentleman employed in the same institution. It was a fine friendship that sprang up between the two from the start, which before very long ripened into real love. Jim Connor, the husband, became impossible for Georgia, and she finally goes to Father Harvey, whom she finally acquaints with her domestic troubles, telling him that it is impossible for her to live longer with Jim.

She asks the priest's permission to divorce Jim. Of course this is denied her, and good Father Harvey uses his best offices at reconciliation. With Georgia matters become worse at home, and better and more alluring at the office. After a long battle between her spiritual and temporal obligations, the young woman resolves to divorce her husband. Hence the rebellion.

Series of Brilliant Concerts.

The Pittsburg Orchestra Association announcements mailed during the past week contain interesting information to thousands of music lovers throughout the community. A series of five Symphony Concerts will be given at Soldiers' Memorial Hall during the winter by the following orchestras: The Theodore Thomas Orchestra on November 7; The Philadelphia Orchestra, December 11; The New York Philharmoniac Orchestra, January 13; The Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra, March 16; and the Boston Symphony on April 8. These Orchestras are all world-renowned, and a brilliant season is promised not only for Pittsburg concert-goers, but for music lovers in the surrounding towns, who are sure to appreciate the advantages of hearing all these orchestras when they aer brought within such easy access. The matter of prices has been given especial consideration by the committee and it is believed that season tickets have now been placed within the reach of all lovers of symphony music. Prices for the season tickets for the five concerts range from $2.25 to $9.50, and the arrangement of the Hall is such that any seat is desirable. The advantage in having the same seats for all concerts, in a preferred location, and at a reduced rate over the price of a single tickets is at once evident, and an unusually large season sale is anticipated. Advance subscriptions will be received at the office of the Association, 1516 Farmers Bank Building, and out of town orders will be given special consideration. The Association urges early reservation of Season Seats, which are assigned in the order of their receipt and where a preference in location is desired, orders should be received as early as possible.

Copies of the season announcement giving all information will gladly be sent on request, addressing Pittsburg Orchestra Association, 1516 Farmers Bank Building, Pittsburg, Pa

THE TRUE TEST

Tried in Charleroi, It .Has Stood the Test.

The hardest test is the test of time, and Doan's Kidney Pills have stood it well in Charleroi. Kidney sufferers can hardly ask for stronger proof than the following:

Mrs Charles Bromwich, 714 Washington avenue, Chaleroi, Pa., says: "About two years ago I had a severe attack of kidney disease and suffered a great deal from pains in the small of my back. I was also subject to headaches and a feeling of languor and although I tried a number of remedies I was not helped. Doan's Kidney Pills were finally recommended to me and deciding to try them, I procured a box at Piper's Drug Store. In a few days after using this remedy I felt a great deal better and before long a complete cure was effected. Doan's Kidney Pills have my highest endorsement." (Statement given September 30,1907.)

Cured Permanently.

On November 6, 1909, Mrs. Bromwich said: "Ican recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as highly today as when I gave a public statement in their favor two years ago. The cure this remedy effected has been permanent."

by the mine workers of that section should not have been tabulated as part of the vote of District No. 5 in the last election, is not valid.

Eighth—That the records of the National Convention held in 1906 show that Patrick Dolan, then President of District No. 5, represented Local Union No. 2398 of Irwin, and Uriah Bellingham, then Vice President of District No. 5, represented Local Union No. 2128 of Irwin, in said Convention.

Ninth—That the records of the District Office show that Local Unions Nos. 2398 and 2128 of Irwin paid to District No. 5 during 1906 and 1907 and voted for officers of District No. 5 in 1906.

Tenth—That the National Union recognized the right of District No. 5 to have jurisdiction over the Irwin field when the National Executive Board gave the officers of District No. 5 jusisdiction over the recent strike in that field.

Eleventh—That Francis Feehan had a majority of the votes over Robert Gibbons for District President without including the vote of the Irwin Field men in his majority.

Twelfth—That one, Owen Cruse, testified before the International Executive Board that while a member of the Executive Board of District No. 5, previous to 1906, he was approached by A. R. Hamilton, at that time a newspaper reporter and now a wealthy mine owner and Editor of the "Coal Trades Bulletin," and told by Hamilton that he would keep his mouth shut and "go along with the boys" he, Hamilton, would see that he was paid for it.

Thirteenth—That Owen Cruse further testified that A. R. Hamilton had told him that he had a number of other agents in various parts of District No. 5.

Fourteenth—That Owen Cruse further testified that he did keep his mouth shut and "go along with the boys", and for a number of years did receive a check signed by the employment agent of the Pittsburg Coal Company.

Fifteenth—That Francis Feehan has furnished the International Executive Board with a letter written by A. R. Hamilton to Owen Cruse, showing that such did take place.

Sixteenth—That Louis McGrew Editor of the "Labor World" appeared before the International Executive Board and testified that he was a brother-in-law of A. R. Hamilton, and that he had spent about Nine Hundred Dollars of his own money and distributed free of charge about ten thousand extra copies of the "Labor World" among the Mine Workers to accomplish Feehan's defeat.

Seventeenth—That while giving his testimony to the Internatonal Executive Board, Louis McGrew failed to produce one particle of proof to substantiate a single one of the many damaging and villianous things he has written and published in the "Labor World" about Francis Feehan.

Eighteenth—That Albert Hobbs, a colored miner of Bulger, Pa., who made a damaging affidavit against Francis Feehan, and which was extensively circulated, appeared before the International Executive Board and testified that Louis McGrew of the "Labor World" wrote him a letter asking him to come to Pittsburg, which he said he did, and that he, McGrew paid him $5.00 for time lost on account of coming to Pittsburg to make the affidavit.

Nineteenth—That of all the charges aimed at and intended to discredit Francis Feehan not a single one bears the official approval of a local union.

Twentieth—That of all the alleged violations of agreement which Francis Feehan is accused of having sanctioned, not one instance is cited where any of the alleged violations were brought to the attention of Francis Feehan, the District Executive Board, a District Convention, National Executive Board, National Convention or any court in the U. M. W. of A. before being embraced in the present charges.

Twenty-first—That of the men who have signed affidavits calculated to discredit Francis Feehan, many are foreign born, and testified through interpreters that they could not read our joint agreement or Constitution; yet they have signed affidavits saying that both have been violated.

Twenty-second—That on direct examination some of the affiants have given testimony in contradiction to that contained in their affidavits, making it clear that they did not know what was in the affidavits when they signed them.

Twenty-third—That Michael Barry ex-Vigilante and signer of affidavit, in which he affirms Feehan allowed the operation of a pate dump at the Marianna Mine in violation of the Agreement, admits on direct examination that the statement contained in his affidavit is not true.

Twenty-fourth—That Thos. Snowball on direct examination gives testimony which disaproves the truthfullne ss of his affidavit.

Twenty-fifth—That Jos. Glancey, John Wilkes, John Blotnek, A. L. Davis and others, whose affidavits are used by Robert Gibbons and his associates to prove their charges, did not appear before the Interantional Executive Board in support of their affidavits, notwithstanding some of them are known to have been in the city during this investigation and despite the fact that the International Executive Board agreed to bear the expense of bringing them here to testify.

Twenty-sixth—That Steve Kievliech while employed as an International Organizer was active in securing many of the affidavits which are used to support the charges against Francis Feehan.

Twenty-seventh—That Robert Gibbons and his associate officers have taken it upon themselves to lead a seccession movement in District No. 5, and base their justification for so doing upon the charges lodged against Francis Feehan.

Twenty-eighth—That during the hearing of this trial Robert Gibbons and his associate officers have repeatedly refused to accept responsibility for the charges lodged against Francis Feehan.

Twenty-ninth—That upon the request of Francis Feehan, Robert Gibbons refused to take the witness stand during this trial and allow Francis Feehan to question him as to his position in the factional controversy.

Thirteenth—That all during this controversy, Robert Gibbons and his associate officers have studiously evaded the Courts of our own Organization and tried to force their claims through the Civil Courts, thereby creating enormous attorney fees which are yet unpaid.

Thirty-first—That by their actions, Robert Gibbons and his associate officers have ignored and violated every written law of the U. M. W. of A. of District No. 5.

Thirty-second—That Thomas Sheehan, a member of the dual Executive refused to sign the charges presented to the International Executive Board and withdrew from participation during the early days of the hearing of this case.

Thirty-third—That Robert Gibbons and his associate officers have failed miserably to substantiate with proof a single one of their charges lodged against Francis Feehan.

Thirty-fourth—That Francis Feehan has by the introduction evidence and witnesses proven that the evidence used by Robert Gibbons and his official associates to support their charges is nothing more than a combination of manufactured falsehoods.

We therefore recommend that the International Eecutive Board decide:

First—That Francis Feehan is completely vindicated of the charges lodged against him by Robert Gibbons and associate officers and others.

Second—That Francis Feehan, Van Bittner, Tim Donoven, George Dagger and their official associates are the legitimate officers of District No. 5.

Third—That all moneys and property belonging to the District Organization must be turned over to the above officers.

Fourth—That all local unions in District No. 5 must support the regular organization or have their charters revoked.

Fifth—That those local unions which have not been paying per capita tax to either faction during this controversy must pay their arrearages to Tim Donovan, Secretary-Treasurer of District No. 5.

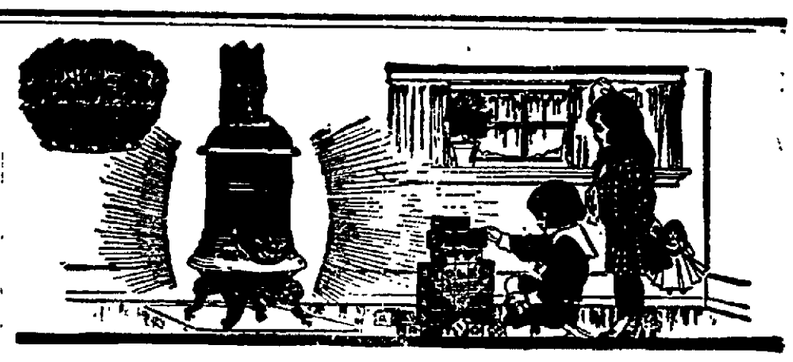
Sixth—That the Local Unions which have been contributing to the Gibbons' Faction shall be reinstated to good standing upon the payment of the District and National per capita tax and assessments for the month of August, and that the question of further exactions from these locals shall be left to Presidents White and Feehan to decide.

Seventh—That where the check-off is held up by the coal companies it must be released and paid over to the officers of the regular organization.

Eighth—That the resident officers of the National Union shall cause to be printed and circulated to all our local unions your committee's findings and your decision thereon, in order that some of the injury done Francis Feehan may be in a measure undone.

Ninth—That President White be instructed to employ legal talent, if necessary, to clear up any further complications in connection with this controversy.

Respectfully submitted,
WM. HARRISON,
WM. DIAMOND,
F. FARRINGTON,
Committee.
Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 19, 1911.



Warm Floors and Healthy Children Make Happy Homes

There is no better way for you to avoid worry and expense than by insuring your children's health.

Warm floors in the home, which is the children's play house in winter, are assured when using Cole's Original Hot Blast Heater.

The steel base and body construction allows the heat to be radiated to the floor keeping it warm during the coldest weather.

Cole's Original Hot Blast Heater

The Cleanest—Easiest to Clean

Burns Soft Coal, Lignite, Hard Coal, Crushed Coke, Wood and Cobs.

Users of coal must remember that the ordinary heater is a big care to operate. That its smoke and ashes entail dusting, curtain washing and carpet sweeping. Think then of the ease of operation and the cleanliness of Cole's Hot Blast.

Cole's Hot Blast has a guaranteed smoke-proof feed door—open the feed door and the current of air draws the smoke directly across the top of stove to the stove pipe—away from the opening. Contrast this simple, cleanly feed with the side door in an ordinary heater. The side door used on other stoves permits escape of dirty smoke, unpleasant gas and accumulated soot drops from it. If you overfill a side door stove, coal falls to the floor. And note this, you cannot make a side door heater air-tight—an everlasting advantage in favor of Cole's Hot Blast which is air-tight and guaranteed to remain so always.

No fires to build—the fire is never out in this remarkable heater from fall until taken down in the spring.

Better select one today—surely it is the heater you need—

What Fear Did.

A wealthy man in New York committed suicide when his doctor told him he had appendicitis A post mortem revealed that he did not have it. His fear of evil was worse than the evil itself.—Prov. 1:33.

It Wasn't a Plot.

"What do you think of the plot?" asked the theater manager. "That isn't a plot," replied the man who had paid two dollars to see the show. "That's a conspiracy."—Washington Star.

The child was a cripple, and the mother had just returned with it from Germany, where she had taken it for treatment.

Soft-Toned Bells of China.

The natives of China use large bells of their own make in many of their temples and monasteries, writes the United States consul at Foochow. I have noticed all through Japan and China that the tone of the monastery and temple bells is very soft and smooth, due to the superior quality of the material used in their manufacture and to the absence of iron clappers, the result being a marvelous softness and mellowness of tone. The bells are never swung, being always suspended in a fixed frame, and the sound is produced by striking them on the outer edge with a wooden mallet. This makes the soft tones which are so delightfully melodious.

Will you vote for one who will look after your interests? If so vote for Bowers for Treasurer.

To the Voters of Washington County

I am a candidate for re-nomination for the office of District Attorney on the Republican ticket at the primaries to be held on Saturday, September 30th, 1911.

During my present term you have had an opportunity to observe the manner in which the office has been conducted. If the administration of the office during that period has met with your approval, then I respectfully ask for your support at the coming primaries.

If re-nominated and re-elected I promise that the policy of the office will be the same in the future as it has been in the past, and that its administration will not be influenced by questions of politics or of political expediency.

BODY OF SUICIDE GIRL IS HERE FOR BURIAL

Broken Marriage Engagement Caused Her to Take Acid

FUNERAL TOMORROW

Alleged Intended Husband Married and Now Lives in Charleroi

Lying cold in death at the mortuary of M. T. Crowley on McKean avenue is the body of Fannie Dohmoh, the German girl who committed suicide in Pittsburg Thursday, while weeping and heartbroken at the home of Mrs. Freda Kiser at 816 Fallowfield avenue is Bertha Dohmoh, the dead girl's sister, who is the only relative in this country. The body was brought to Charleroi yesterday by Undertaker Crowley and it will be buried from the mortuary some time tomorrow afternoon.

As stated the girl, who was employed as a domestic at the home of Marcus Aaron of Winebiddle street in Pittsburg, committed suicide Thursday afternoon by drinking carbolic acid. The cause for the rash deed is supposed to be a love affair, in which a young man to whom the girl was said to be engaged, suddenly left her and married another girl. Yesterday Mrs. Freda Kiser of Fallowfield avenue, who was a friend of the girl, went to Pittsburg and identified the body at the morgue and had it removed to Charleroi for burial.

It is stated that the dead girl who came to Charleroi shortly after her arrival in this country about three years ago, made her home temporarily with Mrs. Kiser, whom she had known in Germany. While here she met a young man who paid her attention, and to whom she told her friends she was engaged. Later the girl got a place in Pittsburg, but came here at intervals to visit the Kiser family, and where she could meet her intended husband.

Some time ago, it is stated by the dead girl's friends, the young man ceased paying her attention, and got back a watch and other trinkets he had given her. Not long since he married another girl, and is living in Charleroi. His former sweetheart took the broken engagement very much to heart, and brooded and grieved over it continually. On Wednesday of this week she came to Charleroi to visit the Kiser family. It was remarked that she acted strangely, and it is now thought that she came for the express purpose of bidding them goodbye, as she committed suicide the next day after her return.

The girl always bore a good reputation and was highly respected by her friends and those who knew her. She had been employed at the Aaron home in Pittsburg for about a year and a half, and was well regarded by her employers. Her sister Bertha is also employed in Pittsburg.

Ready for Next One.

Street Commissioner Jacob Hormell expects to get the streets pretty well cleaned today from the mud and debris washed down upon them by the deluge of Thursday night. When this is done Mr. Hormell says he will be ready for the next storm.

Victim of Boat Rocking Incident at Monon Awaits Burial

The body of George Hagish, one of the two Greensburg men drowned in the river at Monongahela Thursday afternoon, was recovered, being brought to the surface by Edward Crall, Clarence Shepler and John Schaffer, who in a motor boat were dragging the river. The body was removed to the Bebout mortuary where it still remains, not yet having been claimed.

Every effort has been in vain to recover the body of Steve Sweat, the other man who lost his life at the time Hagish was drowned. Dynamite was tried but without success and it is supposed the body has been caught at the bottom.

FIREMEN TO MEET

Local Department Will Contest With South Brownsville

PROGRAM ARRANGED

Accepting an invitation from the South Brownsville Firemen, the Charleroi Volunteer Fire Department will journey to that town next Thursday, September 28, where they will spend a day as contestants in a program of field sports. It is a neighborly affair, and only the Charleroi and Brownsville firemen will engage in any of the contests, although other companies are expected to be present. The following program has been arranged:

Greased pole climbing contest, free for all for a $5 prize.

Ball game 10:30 a. m. between the two fire companies.

In the afternoon the following events will take place on Water street, between the hose house and Barr hotel:

2 o'clock: Hub and hub race.

2:45: Ladder race.

3:15: The Charleroi company will give an exhibition with the Davis Automatic Safety Fire Escape from the top of the Barr house.

4:00: Water battle in front of Pennsylvania hotel.

The Charleroi Firemen will leave on the 7:58 train in the morning, but those who want to see the afternoon sports can leave Charleroi on the 12:38 train at noon and arrive in time for the mose interesting part of the program.

FINDINGS IN FULL OF EXECUTIVE BOARD

International Committee of U. M. W. A. Fully Vindicates President Francis Feehan in Controversy With Gibbons Faction

To The Members of the International Executive Board, U. M. W. of A.

Gentlemen:—We, your Committee, who were delegated by you to further examine the evidence and testimony given before the International Executive Board in connection with the factional quarrel in District No. 5 United Mine Workers of America, submit for your consideration the following report:

Since February 28th, 1911 a secession movement of Mine Workers, officered by Robert Gibbons, President; Abe Kephart, Vice-President; Andrew Puskar, Secretary-Treasurer; Wm. P. Friday, James Brown, E. D. Reed, Thomas Sheehan, James Sabin, Fred Sample and Otto Slater, members of the Executive Board, has existed in District No. 5. The above named men claiming the right of leadership by virtue of the actions of Special Convention, held in Pittsburg February 28th, 1911, at which convention the results of a refenendum vote of the Mine Workers were ignored, Francis Feehan and the other regularly elected officers deposed, and Gibbons and his associates installed as officers of the District, and now offer to the International Executive Board as justification for their actions the following charges against Francis Feehan:

"First—That Francis Feehan is not now, neither was he a member in good standing of a Local Union at the time of his election as District President.

"Second—We charge Francis Feehan of gross favoritism to certain coal companies."

In order that Robert Gibbons and his associate officers could be given an opportunity to prove their chargcharges, the International Executive Board was convened in Labor Temple, Pittsburg, and with the exception of September 4, and 5, has met in daily session from August 24 to September 16 for the purpose of hearing testimony in connection with the charges.

During the hearing the widest latitude was given Robert Gibbons and his colleagues to prove their charges and said hearing continued until they declared they had no further evidence to introduce.

We, your committee, after hearing the testimony and examining the evidence, have found the following facts and agreed to the following conclusions:

First—That circumstances warranted his doing so, and that Frances Feehan was acting with constitutional authority when he postponed the Annual District Convention.

Second—That the Special Convention was instigated by the self styled "Vigilence Committee" who first by the liberal circulation of malicious falsehoods poisoned the minds and infuriated a small portion of the membership against Francis Feehan, and then started the agitation for a Special Convention.

Third—The supporters of the Special Convention have given no reasons why a Specal Convention was so urgent or necessary.

Fourth—The Special Convention acted without authority when it set aside the referendum vote of the membership, deposed the regular officers of the District without giving them a trial and installed Gibbons and his associates as officers of the District.

Fifth—That the Special Convention was not legal as it was not called in accordance with Section 1, Article 5, of the 1910 District Constitution.

Sixth—That Gibbon's claim that he was elected President of District No. 5 in the last District election is not valid. If he was, there would have been no necessity for the Special Convention setting aside the result of the referendum vote in order to make him President.

Seventh—That Gibbon's claim that the Irwin Field is not a part of District No. 5, and that the vote cast

RECEPTION FOR FELLOW PASTOR

Ministers Entertain Colleague Who Departs Soon for New Field

The Ministerial Association of Charleroi with their wives and children met in the lecture room of the First Presbyterian church Friday afternoon and held a reception in honor of Rev. V. G. Hostetter, pastor of the Christian church who is leaving his present pastorate for work of a wider range in Ohio. Refreshments were served an an informal program carried out. Rev. C. E. Frontz gave a very interesting account of a recent visit to Pike's Peak, the Royal Gorge Denver, San Francisco, Los Angeles and other places of interest. The Association presented Mr. Hostetter with a set of books to show their appreciation of his fraternal spirit and his work in Charleroi, the presentation speech being made by Rev. F. A. Richards. Singing and conversation formed a large feature of the gathering. A very enjoyabed time was spent and the company broke up wondering who would be the next to leave.

A Plague of Millers.

Myriads of brown millers are infesting the river towns. They swarm about the arc lights during the night, and the streets and pavements are covered with them in the morning. Charleroi is infested the same as the other towns, but no one seems to know to what species the insects belong, nor what they developed from.

NEGRO IS STABBED

Companion in Quarrel Uses Knife and Then Flees

WOUND MAY BE FATAL

As the result of an argument the origin of which is unknown, James Johnson, a very large and powerful negro of Monongahela is in the Memorial hospital with a knife wound in his abdomen which is likely to prove fatal. Garfield Gardner, a decidedly small black man, is locked up in the Monongahea bastile charged with having wielded the knife which may terminate the big man's existence.

The trouble occurred about 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon on the Monongahela bridge near the Washington county end of the structure. The two men were sitting talking together when they got into an argument. It is claimed that Gardner suddenly drew a large Barlow knife from his pocket and proceeded to gash Johnson.

Gardner fled and last evening was picked up at Black Diamond by Constable W. J. Hilton and taken to the lockup.

Gardner flatly refuses to say anything about the trouble and the condition of Johnson precludes his talking.

Noted Orators to Break Lance at Eldora Park Sunday

WOMAN ALSO LECTURES

Her Topic Will Be, "The Battle for Bread is the Issue"

An event of much interest to a large portion of the public will take place tomorrow at Eldoro Park. This is socialist lecture by one of the most eminent woman orators in the whole country. In addition to the lecture Miss Hunt will take part in a public debate with Hon. Edward Callaghan of Charleroi, on the subject, "Resolved That Socialism is the Only Solution for the Prevention of Crime."

Miss Hunt is one of the few educated and cultured young women who is devoting her life to the furtherance of Socialism. She is completely wrapped up in the issue and consecrates her life to the cause of what she thinks is for the betterment of humanity. She has been connected with some of the prominent lecture bureaus of the country, and is well known as one of the star lecturers of the American platform. She has also traveled extensively abroad studying social matters and is thoroughly conversant with social and economic conditions. At one of the meetings of the American Peace Conference she was chosen to make an address before that body.

Mr. Callaghan, who is now in the insurauce business in Charleroi has also had a noted public career. He is a staunch Democrat of the Jeffersonian school, and while a resident of Westmoreland county was elected to the Pennsylvania Legislature, where he served one term with credit and distinction. Mr. Callaghan is also a deep student of social, political and economic conditions, and a ready debator. He has broken a lance on various occasions with some worthy foemen, and never failed to give a creditable account of himself.

The arrangement for the debate tomorrow came though a challenge Mr. Callaghan issued through the newspaper to the county chairmen of the various political parties to debate the subject, "What is the Best Remedy for the Prevention of Crime?" None of these accepted, but Leroy Bruce of Allenport proposed to debate the subject, "Resolved, That Socialism is the Only Solution for the Prevention of Crime." Mr. Callaghan consented and the debate was arranged to take place at the Coyle Theatre tomorrow. Later the Monessen Socialists arranged to have Miss Gertrude Hunt lecture at Eldora Park tomorrow, and in order not to conflict with the debate it was proposed to have Miss Hunt take Mr. Bruce's place and hold the debate in the park, after the lecture. Mr. Callaghan was agreeable, and the debate will start immediately after the lecture. Miss Hunt takes the affirmative and Mr. Callaghan the negative.

The subject of Miss Hunt's lecture at the park will be "The Battle for Bread is the Issue." It will start at 2:30.

FEEHAN VINDICATED.

Through the courtesy of Assemblyman Feehan the Mail is enabled to present to its readers the report of the executive committee of the United Mine Workers of America which has been investigating the dispute that has prevailed in District No 5, or what is popularly known as the Pittsburg district. This will be intresting reading, particularly to the friends of President Francis Feehan, who is fully vindicated and sustained in the report.

In the unfortunate controversy that prevailed in this district between the factions of the miners, the sympathy of the public outside of the organization has been generally with President Feehan. The latter is well known personally all along the river where he used to live, and his friends outside of mining circles have watched his development as a leader with genuine pleasue. He has advanced right along in his sphere of influence, and his counsels are respected by all. He is fair, open and above board, and the public has confidence that he will always give due consideration to all sides of any question that may come up before him to decide. His complete vivication is received with general satisfaction in this community.

A SURFEIT.

Like the Mail, the Pittsburg Dispatch if of the opinion that the matter of celebrating events anniversaries and holding blowouts generally is being overdone, and that these affairs are costing the public mare than they come to. There is hardly a year in which a big exposition is not planned and the after effects in a large scope of country are deadly and paralyzing to industry and business generally.

Many communities as well as individuals are getting to be of the opinion that too much money is being spent in celebrations and blowouts, and that the individual as well as the country at large will be better off by keping their money in their pockets or in the banks. With some surplus cash the individual can often engage in a business project or purchase a property that will do more good to both himself and the community than to dissipate it for a celebration that only lasts a day, a week or a month, and then is paralyzing in its effects afterward. A new building or an expansion in business means more to a community than a blowout that costs all it comes to.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

Editor "Bill" Watson of the Donora American pulls off one on the police force of the down river steel town Mike Ready, a special police officer, conducts a green house on the hill and a few nights ago some one called up the police station and asked for Mike The line wasn't working good and the officer who answered the phone could only hear what he took to be a report that some one had "cut Flowers." The man insisted that Ready be sent up at once.

Mike was hunted up but he had been off duty for a while and two other policeman responded to the call which had come from the neighborhood of the greenhouse. They went up expecting to find that a serious cutting affray had been pulled off, but were met by a mild mannered man who was waiting for Ready to come and deliver an order of cut flowers for a funeral. The officers beat it back to the station house and made the following report to Chief Rader.

"Arrests unnecessary. Flowers not cut yet."

"Where do you people get your railroad news?" asked Charles R. Trew, one of the prominent real estate and insurance men of the town. "You seem to have a line on what is doing in railroad developments up the river and across the West Virginia line that is not to be found in any other newspaper in the State."

Mr. Trew was informed that the Mail had some live wires at several of the up-river points that kept the paper informed in regard to prospective developments and he continued.

"A number of people here and in the community have coal investments in Greene county and West Virginia, and they are consequently much interested in railroad developments in those sections. They have gotten valuable information from the Mail in regard to railroad developments that was not to be found elsewhere, and consequently they watch your paper closely, and appreciate the information it gives. I notice that the Pittsburg papers often print the same railroad stuff weeks after it has appeared in the Mail."

THERE THE SAUSAGE IS HOLY

Highest Aim of Good German is to Evolve a New Brand of "Wurst."

While in this country one may purchase many varieties of sausage, it is to Westphalia, Prussia, that we must look for the sausage in all its glory, says Harper's Weekly There, it is said, a trader will name you no fewer than four hundred different kinds, and they present a bewildering array of divers substances in their composition

At a German sausage exhibition held not so long ago at Berne, in Switzerland, there were displayed 1,785 kinds of sausage from various countries It is said that a good German would rather invent a new sausage than anything else At any rate there is told the story of the young Prussian who, though he had received an expensive training as a chemist, shut himself up in his laboratory and, instead of devising a new dye, safety match, motor engine, explosive, aeroplane or photographic lens, took pork, veal, olives, pepper, fennel, old wine, cheese, apples, cinnamon and herrings' roes, and from them evolved a wonderful and totally original "wurst," the best of its kind He has amassed a considerable fortune from its sale.

Fond Hearts Finally United.

After waiting 30 years for her to become a widow, George Sleegarm of Wilkesbarre, Pa, has married Mrs. Marietta Tebern of Hazelton. When they were young in Germany they fell in love, and would have married had it not been for the opposition of their parents They tried to elope, but were discovered and caught before it was possible for them to wed. Sleegarm, despondent and angry, emigrated, and his sweetheart, who was married a year after he left, followed a few years later with her husband, who died a short time ago Sleegarm lately discovered that his old sweetheart lived in Hazleton. The old courtship was begun again and culminated in their wedding the other day.

YOUR KIDNEYS NEED CLEANING

Every Person, Healthy or Unhealthy, Ought to Give the Kidneys a Thorough Cleaning Right Now.

You clean your teeth daily. You wouldn't think of doing otherwise, and yet the teeth are not one tenth so important to health, strength and a long life as the kidneys.

Do you know that the kidneys are little strainers or fine sieves, through which every drop of blood in the body passes again and again.

And when the kidneys become clogged they are unable to strain the impure matter from the blood and it stays in the blood and causes disease in various parts of the body. Take rheumatism, for instance, this terrible disease is caused by uric acid in the blood, and uric acid gets into the blood only when the kidneys are clogged up and are unable to properly strain the impurities.

Just go to W. F. Hennings' today and get a bottle of Thompson's Barosma, the most scientific kidney, liver and bladder regulator the world has ever known, take it regularly for two weeks and all the impure matter in your kidneys will pass out through the bladder and your kidneys will be as pure and clean and healthy as any kidneys can be.

Thompson's Barosma is guaranteed by W. F. Hennings' to cure all diseases of the kidneys, liver, and bladder, or money back. It is a wonderful tonic and blood purifier and will bring the glow of health to the cheeks of the sick in a short time. 50 cents and $1.00 a bottle. All druggists.

For County Commissioner

THOMAS HILL

Union Township

Subject to Republican Rules

The office of County Commissioner is the most important in the whole county. It has to spend hundreds of thousands of dollars of the people's money every year. All the public improvements are enactioned and constructed under its direction. It is the most important office for a section or locality to have representation in, although not one of great emolument or profit to the one holding it. It is strange to say that the boroughs and townships fronting upon the Monongahela River have never had representation upon the board in the majority party for over thirty years. This is the more remarkable because they have over one-third of the population of the entire county and have very often themselves furnished the majority to elect the commissioners and the entire Republican ticket. Is it fair to this great and most important district? Has this great valley received its proportionate share of public improvements? Of the thousands and hundreds of thousands of dollars spent upon the road improvements, how much has been spent along the Monongahela valley. The time is close at hand when the Republican voters of this great community can have a representative tried and true. and who is in touch with the River country, by putting the cross opposite the name of Thomas Hill of Union Township, whose name appears upon the official Republican ballot. He will see that this great section will receive its full share of public improvements. He believes that when money is collected as taxes from this district that improvements should come proportionately. He is opposed to the arbitrary increase of the assessment of a whole township or borough. He believes that the appeals from the assessments should be held in each locality, and that the people wishing to object to the assessment should not be compelled to take the time and expense or to go to the county seat to obtain their hearing. In other words, that the Commissioners should go to the people instead of compelling the people to go to them. If you believe that the Republican party should give the river district a representative. the first in thirty years, cast your vote for Thomas Hill.

The above appeared in the Charleroi Mail in its issue of April 10. 1908, and upon that platform Mr. Thomas Hill received a flattering vote from the River District and was nominated and elected County Commissioner. Has he made good these promises to the River District?

BRIDGES

What Has He Done for Bridges

At the time when he entered upon the duties of his office the building of the new bridge at Monongahela had been arranged for, yet. the contract had not been let, and the matter was being held up indefinitely, he and his associates immediately took up the matter and in a short time after their entry into the office the contract was let and the people of Monongahela were given a good substantial bridge over the Monongahela River. The Speers-Belle Vernon bridge has been made free during his administration, and he and his associates have been outspoken and persistent in favor of a bridge at W. Brownsville and now steps are being taken to build the same in conjunction with Fayette County.

ROADS

What Has He Done for Roads

The building of the Monongahela-Donora Road, the Charleroi-Bentleyville and the Roscoe-Stockdale, and the letting of the contract of the East Pike Run and the Finleyville-Monongahela by the State Highway Department are most convincing arguments in favor of a representative of the majority party from the River Section in favor of retention of Thomas Hill in the Commissioners Office.

APPEALS

What Has He Done in the Matter of Appeals

In the above he promised that appeals would be held in different sections of the county, instead of requiring all persons to come to the county seat which had formerly been the practice and worked a great hardship particularly to the people of the River District.

The loss of a day's time and the expense in going to and from the county seat amounted more to many people than the excess taxation they were obliged to pay by reason of an unfair assessment.

He and his associates have made this promise good by holding their appeals in different sections and in going to the people showed that they were the servants and not the Master. He further believes in equitable assessments to all property whether belonging to the rich or poor, white or black high or low, and in this respect he and his associates have done their best to bring this about.

COUNTY OFFICES

He Believes In a Salary for the Other County Officials

but this is not a matter which comes under the jurisdiction of the Board of Commissioners, but to bring about this end, he and his associate [illegible]zed a bill to be drawn putting the other county offices upon a salary basis, and had the same presented in the State Legislature. This bill, however, met with considerable opposition there and could not be passed.

In thus being a faithful representative of the River District does not mean that he has been unfair to others and he believes that all sections of the county should receive fair and equal treatment and his promise of courteous treatment to all having business in the office has been faithfully carried out.

Is not Thomas Hill a faithful representative of the people?

ECONOMY

He Promised the People Economy in the County Affairs

he and his associates have reduced the operations of the county many thousand dollars. When he took office in 1909, the county was deeply in debt and considerable money borrowed, paying interest on the same, and during the first year of their administration he and his associates were forced to raise the millage in order to pay off the out standing debts contracted by the predecessors, yet in the following two years they have succeeded in reducing the millage three-quarters of one per cent less than it had formerly been.

See that Tom Hill is retained and put in the cross opposite his name and so doing you vote for good roads, free bridges and low taxes.

DISSERTATION ON THE SHIRT

Writer Uncorks Vials of Wrath in a Few Indictments of Uncomfortable Modern Garment.

The onward march of civilization has its obstacles.

Shirts being made for man and not man for shirts, every time a man gets a new shirt or one comes back from the laundry the moral uplift needs the application of the safety brake and the emergency clutch to keep us from dropping into the cellar again.

Shirts are made of various kinds of materials. After the sewing is finished they are left for a few hours in a strong mixture of glue and concrete. This fastens the back to the bosom and sticks the sleeves together. Buttonholes are then made in the neckband, and the band is then steeped in cement so that the buttonholes cannot be opened. The bosom is then adorned with buttons. These buttons are sewed on with one weak thread, so that when you try to button the shirt, after having pried it apart with a paper knife and strong language, the buttons will fly away merrily.

Shirts that are laundered are always sent back with the lower button buttoned in, and all the buttonholes glued right.

Dress shirts are made with veneered bosoms, with little round holes where the studs are only supposed to be placed. These bosoms are absolutely inflexible, and the studs cannot be inserted without the aid of a sledge hammer, which is damaging to the disposition.

The man who will invent a buttonless shirt, which cannot be starched in the neckband, will earn a monument which will be illuminated at night.—Chicago Evening Post.

Among the Theatres

THE PALACE—CHARLEROI.

"Butchered to make a Roman holiday," is an old poetic expression used in describing the ancient Roman gladiatorial contests where men killed one another in the arena for the amusement of the populace. They don't do that exactly nowadays, but they did have a head-on collision between two locomotives at Indianapolis when the locomotive engineers held their convention there recently. This was caught by the moving picture cameras, and presented at the Palace Theatre the other night with a realism that was startling. The actual contact was shown together with the heap of scrap that resulted. Among the interesting photoplays of the week were "A Society Mother," who sacrifices the happiness of her daughter for wealth and position. Other strong features were "The Vitograph Monthly," "Two Men and a Girl," and "Kit Carson's Wooing. Miss Helen Atwill rendered two spotlight songs "Sonora" and "Garden of My Heart," which made a decided hit.

THE STAR—CHARLEROI.

"Nobody Loves a Fat Waman" was the title of a photoplay at the Star Theatre the nature of which was to make young damsels with tendency to accumulate adipose tissue sit up and take notice. The title however, is a misnomer, as the person with a lean and hungry look" has ever been regarded as dangerous from Shakespeare's time down to the present. The old-time nursery story, "Babes in the Wood," which used to be presented in the time of our grandfathers in pantomime along with "Punch and Judy," was also a delightful picture. Others striking photoplays of the week were "The Twins," "The Phoney Ring," "Hands Across the Cradle," and "Can He Save Her." Manager Tom Cowan's matinees at 2 in the afternoon are restful places for out-of-town shoppers.

THE NIXON—PITTSBURG.

Music that is bright and catchy, dances that appeal, elaborate scenes, a score of captivating tunes and many novel and catchy effects are said to characterize the big musical extravaganza "The Top O' Th' World," which, with Bailey and Austin (the original stars) and the original cast and production, comes to the Nixon Theatre next week.

The book is by Mark Swan, lyrics by James O'Dea, and music by Anne Caldwell and Manuel Klein. The piece was staged by Joe Flanagan and Julian Mitchell and the dancers were put on by Sig. Albertieri and Bailey and Austin. The cast includes Fred Wilson, Al McGarry, Ethel Ricketts, Rae Bates, Lyda Carlisle, Leonoro Ammo (former soprona soloist, Ferullo's Band, Coliseum, Chicago,) Paul Masieus, Tommy Madden, Cherry Pullman, and others. A big company of the prettiest girls obtainable in New York grace the five scenes and delightful and startling effects are distributed throughout the situations. The play is in two acts and five scenes. Each scene is a masterpiece of the scenic artist's skill.

Kris Kringle's Toy Shop, a Pass in the North, the Palace of Queen Aurora Borealis, the Eskimo's Igiloo and the Wonderful City of Ilusia are the mythical places represented.

There are seventy people in the company's roster and three special baggage cars are required to transport the scenery and effects.

THE GRAND—PITTSBURG.

Paul Armstrong, who wrote "Alias Jimmy Valentine," "Salomy Jane," "The Heir to the Hurrah," and "The Deep Purple," is the author of "A Romance of the Under World," which Manager Harry Davis has just booked as the headline attraction at the Grand for one week beginning Monday afternoon, September 25. This is not a sketch; it is a play. It takes two scenes to enact the play. The first of these shows a session of the criminal court in New York with vivid glimpses of types that go to make up what society knows as "the underworld." A pretty love romance runs throughout the powerful story and a genuinely humorous vein of comedy pervades many of its situations.

Nothing in the history of vaudeville has created so profound an impression upon the theatre-going public of the metropolis and in fact, in all the large cities where Mr. Armstrong has booked "A Romance of the UnderWorld."

Among the many other exceptionally fine attractions noted in the Grand's bill for the following week are Max Hart's Six Steppers, an ensemble dancing act of superlative qualities; the Flying Martins in their daring exploits on the double trapeze at dizzy heights; Nonette Lyle, the witching gypsy girl violinist and vocalist, and some half a dozen others.

The advance sale of reserved seats for next week will begin tomorrow.

THE ALVIN—PITTSBURG.

For the week beginning Monday evening, September 25, Gertrude Elliott and a capable supporting company will present at the Alvin Theatre Joseph Medill Patterson's new drama of present conditions, entitled "Rebellion." In brief, the story concerns Georgia Connor, a young married woman of the middle class. Jim, her husband, turns out to be a worthless drunkard, and failing to support Georgia, she is forced to make her own living. She gets a position in a big downtown office, and very soon finds herself in favor with her employer, and shortly after in the particular favor of a very honorable and a very handsome young gentleman employed in the same institution. It was a fine friendship that sprang up between the two from the start, which before very long ripened into real love. Jim Connor, the husband, became impossible for Georgia, and she finally goes to Father Harvey, whom she finally acquaints with her domestic troubles, telling him that it is impossible for her to live longer with Jim.

She asks the priest's permission to divorce Jim. Of course this is denied her, and good Father Harvey uses his best offices at reconciliation. With Georgia matters become worse at home, and better and more alluring at the office. After a long battle between her spiritual and temporal obligations, the young woman resolves to divorce her husband. Hence the rebellion.

Series of Brilliant Concerts.

The Pittsburg Orchestra Association announcements mailed during the past week contain interesting information to thousands of music lovers throughout the community. A series of five Symphony Concerts will be given at Soldiers' Memorial Hall during the winter by the following orchestras: The Theodore Thomas Orchestra on November 7; The Philadelphia Orchestra, December 11; The New York Philharmoniac Orchestra, January 13; The Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra, March 16; and the Boston Symphony on April 8. These Orchestras are all world-renowned, and a brilliant season is promised not only for Pittsburg concert-goers, but for music lovers in the surrounding towns, who are sure to appreciate the advantages of hearing all these orchestras when they aer brought within such easy access. The matter of prices has been given especial consideration by the committee and it is believed that season tickets have now been placed within the reach of all lovers of symphony music. Prices for the season tickets for the five concerts range from $2 25 to $9 50, and the arrangement of the Hall is such that any seat is desirable. The advantage of having the same seats for all concerts, in a preferred location, and at a reduced rate over the price of a single tickets is at once evident, and an unusually large season sale is anticipated. Advance subscriptions will be received at the office of the Association, 1516 Farmers Bank Building, and out of town orders will be given special consideration. The Association urges early reservation of Season Seats, which are assigned in the order of their receipt and where a preference in location is desired, orders should be received as early as possible.

Copies of the season announcement giving all information will gladly be sent on request, addressing Pittsburg Orchestra Association, 1516 Farmers Bank Building, Pittsburg, Pa.

THE TRUE TEST

Tried in Charleroi, It .Has Stood the Test.

The hardest test is the test of time, and Doan's Kidney Pills have stood it well in Charleroi. Kidney sufferers can hardly ask for stronger proof than the following:

Mrs Charles Bromwich, 714 Washington avenue, Chaleroi, Pa., says: "About two years ago I had a severe attack of kidney disease and suffered a great deal from pains in the small of my back. I was also subject to headaches and a feeling of languor and although I tried a number of remedies I was not helped. Doan's Kidney Pills were finally recommended to me and deciding to try them, I procured a box at Piper's Drug Store. In a few days after using this remedy I felt a great deal better and before long a complete cure was effected. Doan's Kidney Pills have my highest endorsement." (Statement given September 30,1907.)

Cured Permanently.

On November 6, 1909, Mrs. Bromwich said: "I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as highly today as when I gave a public statement in their favor two years ago. The cure this remedy effected has been permanent."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's and take no other.

A NOTRE DAME LADY'S APPEAL.

To all knowing sufferers of rheumatism, whether muscular or of the joints, sciatica, lumbago, backache, pains in the kidneys or neuralgia pains, to write to her for a home treatment which has repeatedly cured all of these torturers. Safe relief is her duty to send it to all sufferers FREE. You cure yourself at home as thousands will testify—no change of climate being necessary. This simple discovery banishes uric acid from the blood, loosens the stiffened joints, purifies the blood, and brightens the eyes, giving elasticity and tone to the whole system. If the above interests you, for proof address Mrs. M. Summers, Box R, Notre Dame, Ind.

by the mine workers of that section should not have been tabulated as part of the vote of District No. 5 in the last election, is not valid.

Eighth—That the records of the National Convention held in 1906 show that Patrick Dolan, then President of District No. 5, represented Local Union No. 2398 of Irwin, and Uriah Bellingham, then Vice President of District No. 5, represented Local Union No. 2128 of Irwin, in said Convention.

Ninth—That the records of the District Office show that Local Unions Nos. 2398 and 2128 of Irwin paid to District No. 5 during 1906 and 1907 and voted for officers of District No. 5 in 1906.

Tenth—That the National Union recognized the right of District No. 5 to have jurisdiction over the Irwin field when the National Executive Board gave the officers of District No. 5 jusisdiction over the recent strike in that field.

Eleventh—That Francis Feehan had a majority of the votes over Robert Gibbons for District President without including the vote of the Irwin Field men in his majority.

Twelfth—That one, Owen Cruse, testified before the International Executive Board that while a member of the Executive Board of District No. 5, previous to 1906, he was approached by A. R. Hamilton, at that time a newspaper reporter and now a wealthy mine owner and Editor of the "Coal Trades Bulletin," and told by Hamilton that he would keep his mouth shut and "go along with the boys" he, Hamilton, would see that he was paid for it.

Thirteenth—That Owen Cruse further testified that A. R. Hamilton had told him that he had a number of other agents in various parts of District No. 5.

Fourteenth—That Owen Cruse further testified that he did keep his mouth shut and "go along with the boys", and for a number of years did receive a check signed by the employment agent of the Pittsburg Coal Company.

Fifteenth—That Francis Feehan has furnished the International Exeutive Board with a letter written by A. R. Hamilton to Owen Cruse, showing that such did take place.

Sixteenth—That Louis McGrew Editor of the "Labor World" appeared before the International Executive Board and testified that he was a brother-in-law of A. R. Hamilton, and that he had spent about Nine Hundred Dollars of his own money and distributed free of charge about ten thousand extra copies of the "Labor World" among the Mine Workers to accomplish Feehan's defeat.

Seventeenth—That while giving his testimony to the International Executive Board, Louis McGrew failed to produce one particle of proof to substantiate a single one of the many damaging and villianous things he has written and published in the "Labor World" about Francis Feehan.

Eighteenth—That Albert Hobbs, a colored miner of Bulger, Pa., who made a damaging affidavit against Francis Feehan, and which was extensively circulated, appeared before the International Executive Board and testified that Louis McGrew of the "Labor World" wrote him a letter asking him to come to Pittsburg, which he said he did, and that he, McGrew paid him $5.00 for time lost on account of coming to Pittsburg to make the affidavit.

Nineteenth—That of all the charges aimed at and intended to discredit Francis Feehan not a single one bears the official approval of a local union.

Twentieth—That of all the alleged violations of agreement which Francis Feehan is accused of having sanctioned, not one instance is cited where any of the alleged violations were brought to the attention of Francis Feehan, the District Executive Board, a District Convention, National Executive Board, National Convention or any court in the U. M. W. of A. before being embraced in the present charges.

Twenty-first—That of the men who have signed affidavits calculated to discredit Francis Feehan, many are foreign born, and testified through interpreters that they could not read our joint agreement or Constitution; yet they have signed affidavits saying that both have been violated.

Twenty-second—That on direct examination some of the affiants have given testimony in contradiction to that contained in their affidavits, making it clear that they did not know what was in the affidavits when they signed them.

Twenty-third—That Michael Barry ex-Vigilante and signer of affidavit, in which he affirms Feehan allowed the operation of a pate dump at the Marianna Mine in violation of the Agreement, admits on direct examination that the statement contained in his affidavit is not true.

Twenty-fourth—That Thos. Snowball on direct examination gives testimony which disaproves the truthfullne ss of his affidavit.

Twenty-fifth—That Jos. Glancey, John Wilkes, John Blotnek, A. L. Davis and others, whose affidavits are used by Robert Gibbons and his associates to prove their charges, did not appear before the Interantional Executive Board in support of their affidavits, notwithstanding some of them are known to have been in the city during this investigation and despite the fact that the International Executive Board agreed to bear the expense of bringing them here to testify.

Twenty-sixth—That Steve Kievlech while employed as an International Organizer was active in securing many of the affidavits which are used to support the charges against Francis Feehan.

Twenty-seventh—That Robert Gibbons and his associate officers have taken it upon themselves to lead a seccession movement in District No. 5, and base their justification for so doing upon the charges lodged against Francis Feehan.

Twenty-eighth—That during the hearing of this trial Robert Gibbons and his associate officers have repeatedly refused to accept responsibility for the charges lodged against Francis Feehan.

Twenty-ninth—That upon the request of Francis Feehan, Robert Gibbons refused to take the witness stand during this trial and allow Francis Feehan to question him as to his position in the factional controversy.

Thirteenth—That all during this controversy, Robert Gibbons and his associate officers have studiously evaded the Courts of our own Organization and tried to force their claims through the Civil Courts, thereby creating enormous attorney fees which are yet unpaid.

Thirty-first—That by their actions, Robert Gibbons and his associate officers have ignored and violated every written law of the U. M. W. of A. of District No. 5.

Thirty-second—That Thomas Sheehan, a member of the dual Executive refused to sign the charges presented to the International Executive Board and withdrew from participation during the early days of the hearing of this case.

Thirty-third—That Robert Gibbons and his associate officers have failed miserably to substantiate with proof a single one of their charges lodged against Francis Feenan.

Thirty-fourth—That Francis Feehan has by the introduction evidence and witnesses proven that the evidence used by Robert Gibbons and his official associates to support their charges is nothing more than a combination of manufactured falsehoods.

We therefore recommend that the International Eecutive Board decide:

First—That Francis Feehan is completely vindicated of the charges lodged against him by Robert Gibbons and associate officers and others.

Second—That Francis Feehan, Van Bittner, Tim Donoven, George Dagger and their official associates are the legitimate officers of District No. 5.

Third—That all moneys and property belonging to the District Organization must be turned over to the above officers.

Fourth—That all local unions in District No. 5 must support the regular organization or have their charters revoked.

Fifth—That those local unions which have not been paying per capita tax to either faction during this controversy must pay their arrearages to Tim Donovan, Secretary-Treasurer of District No. 5.

Sixth—That the Local Unions which have been contributing to the Gibbons' Faction shall be reinstated to good standing upon the payment of the District and National per capita tax and assessments for the month of August, and that the question of further exactions from these locals shall be left to Presidents White and Feehan to decide.

Seventh—That where the check-off is held up by the coal companies it must be released and paid over to the officers of the regular organization.

Eighth—That the resident officers of the National Union shall cause to be printed and circulated to all our local unions your committee's findings and your decision thereon, in order that some of the injury done Francis Feehan may be in a measure undone.

Ninth—That President White be instructed to employ legal talent, if necessary, to clear up any further complications in connection with this controversy.

Respectfully submitted,
WM. HARRISON,
WM. DIAMOND,
F. FARRINGTON,
Committee.

Warm Floors and Healthy Children Make Happy Homes

There is no better way for you to avoid worry and expense than by insuring your children's health.

Warm floors in the home, which is the children's play house in winter, are assured when using Cole's Original Hot Blast Heater.

The steel base and body construction allows the heat to be radiated to the floor keeping it warm during the coldest weather.

Cole's Original Hot Blast Heater

The Cleanest—Easiest to Operate

Burns Soft Coal, Lignite, Hard Coal, Crushed Coke, Wood and Cobs.

Users of coal must remember that the ordinary heater is a big care to operate. That its smoke and ashes entail dusting, curtain washing and carpet sweeping. Think then of the ease of operation and the cleanliness of Cole's Hot Blast.

Cole's Hot Blast has a guaranteed smoke-proof feed door—open the feed door and the current of air draws the smoke directly across the top of stove to the stove pipe—away from the opening. Contrast this simple, cleanly feed with the side door in an ordinary heater. The side door used on other stoves permits escape of dirty smoke, unpleasant gas and accumulated soot drops from it. If you overfill a side door stove, coal falls to the floor. And note this, you cannot make a side door heater air-tight—an everlasting advantage in favor of Cole's Hot Blast which is air-tight and guaranteed to remain so always.

No fires to build—the fire is never out in this remarkable heater from fall until taken down in the spring.

Better select one today—surely it is the heater you need—

For County Treasurer

C. S. RITCHIE

North Franklin Township

Primaries September 30, 1911. According to Rules of the Republican Party.

A few reasons why! Charles S. Ritchie should be nominated and elected Treasurer of Washington County.

1st. He promises if elected to conduct the office in a strictly business like manner and to be governed according to the laws of the State of Pennsylvania regulating the duties of County Treasurer.

2nd. He has thoroughly qualified himself as to ability and fitness by his work as Deputy Controller in producing and installing a system of bookkeeping in the County Controller's office, by which the taxpayers can learn every day all about the fiscal affairs of Washington County.

3rd. He is not a slated candidate but a candidate of the people and not a slate maker but a slate breaker. Vote for him.

The child was a cripple, and the mother had just returned with it from Germany, where she had taken it for treatment.

Soft-Toned Bells of China.

The natives of China use large bells of their own make in many of their temples and monasteries, writes the United States consul at Foochow. I have noticed all through Japan and China that the tone of the monastery and temple bells is very soft and smooth, due to the superior quality of the material used in their manufacture and to the absence of iron clappers, the result being a marvelous softness and mellowness of tone. The bells are never swung, being always suspended in a fixed frame, and the sound is produced by striking them on the outer edge with a wooden mallet. This makes the soft tones which are so delightfully melodious.

The overcoat, which succeeded the mediaeval cloak, was rare until the seventeenth century.

To the Voters of Washington County

I am a candidate for re-nomination for the office of District Attorney on the Republican ticket at the primaries to be held on Saturday, September 30th, 1911.

During my present term you have had an opportunity to observe the manner in which the office has been conducted. If the administration of the office during that period has met with your approval, then I respectfully ask for your support at the coming primaries.

If re-nominated and re-elected I promise that the policy of the office will be the same in the future as it has been in the past, and that its administration will not be influenced by questions of politics or of political expediency.
